This is a boldy drawn picture and the truth cannot be denied. Catholic foreigners are not contented to avail themselves of the exalted privileges of American institutions—becoming peculiar citizens and units with us in removing existing evils and extending the blessings of our country to further usefulness and perfect-ness for them they reside there will be no reason for an American to do the same.

of the people. If a Protestant foreigner votes then against the American party it is equivalent to voting for a Catholic; choose then, between the two; either show that you prefer to be governed by American citizens or by those who shed the blood of your ancestors. By voting for Americans to rule America, foreign Protestants do not diminish any of their priileges, nor do violence to any man who has sought, and found in this land a home, protected by law, and liberty to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience, and the revelation of God's own word.

Wish to journey to Richmond, Va. now household work. A person who is frail and delicate, and at times a strange source of anxiety hangs over her pale thoughtful face, but when
